Page 3: HIGHLIGHTS & PLAY BY Play of Game: Hart vs Moorpark

Final Score Hart 3, Moorpark 0. This is the 1st time Hart has played Moorpark. Since records have been kept starting in 1987. The game was over before 5pm, as the 1st 3 innings were completed in under 30 minutes.

Phil Tognetti was the winning pitcher. He pitched a very strong game giving up 4 hits including 1 double striking out 3 and giving up no walks. Eric Posthumus relieved him in the bottom of the 6th with 2 out after a single, and promptly picked the runner off first. At that time Hart was holding onto a 1-0 lead. The run was scored in the 2nd when Craig Cohen doubled to right and J.P. Slauenwhite ran for him, and took 3rd on a passed ball and scored on a Sacrifice fly by Mike Miller.

Hart then scored 2 in the top of the 7th when John Curtis pinch hit for Chris Gagnon and was safe on the only error of the game by the Moorpark 2nd baseman. He rode home on a ringing double to left center by Nic Enciso, his 2nd of the game. After Chris Valaika flew out to right, sending Curtis to 3rd, Billy Susdorf singled in Curtis.

In the bottom of the 7th, Posthumus gave up a single and then hit a batter, bringing up the tieing run with nobody out. He then got a strikeout, and then got a game ending double play with a comebacker, and threw to 2nd with Chris Giordano covering. When the runner upended Giordano illegally, an automatic double play was called ending the game.
