For this game # 9: Hart 4, West Torrance 0:

The Box score is on Page 1. - The YTD 9 game Stats are on Page 2.

Wow!!! It was really Hart's day today. We had 2 great games in the Split Venue Non League Double Header vs West Torrance.

In the first game: Donny Williams pitched a masterful complete game shutout 4-0. The game took only 1 hour 30 minutes and we were then quickly on the way to Birmingham high in Lake Balboa for the 2nd game.

Williams gave up only 4 hits, 3 of the infield variety, and only 1 single to left. There were only 2 fly balls to the outfield. He struck out 3 walked 1. He only left 2 men on base, both in the 3rd when he left men on 2nd and 3rd.

The Hart runs were all unearned. West Torrance made 4 errors in the first 2 innings. A fly ball was dropped after a long run, and 3 overthrows to the first baseman 1 that allowed a baserunner to get 2 extra bases and the other 2 resulted in 2 base errors.

In the first Matt Valaika singled to left and was quickly erased on a double play. Ryan Gagnon was safe when the left fielder dropped a flyball, stole 2nd and scored when the shortstop threw away Matt Seden's ground ball that would have ended the inning. Hart led 1-0

Hart picked up 3 more unearned runs in the 2nd. Brian Charnock easily beat out a grounder to 3rd, but the 3rd baseman attempted a throw that went down into the West Torrance Bullpen and Charnock wound up on 3rd. Ryan Peterson scored Charnock with a sacrifice fly.

Andrew Briggs shot a liner off the pitcher into center field for a hit.

Kevin Baker grounded to short and the shortstop sailed the ball into the bullpen again, Briggs scoring all the way from 1st, Baker taking 2nd. Baker took 3rd on a wild pitch and scored on a sacrifice fly by Matt Valaika. Shane Carlson lined a sharp single to right center but the inning ended on a fly to left.

After that it settled into a pitching duel as only Matt Valaika was able to garner another hit, a single to center in the 4th. West Torrance pitcher Philip Hons pitched a 5 hitter, but the left side of his infield did him in, during the first 2 innings.

Shane Carlson made another spectacular play at 3rd in the 6th inning, something he has been doing with regularity the whole season.

Because the 1st game ended very quickly everyone scampered to their cars and going against rush hour traffic on the 405 made it quickly to Birmingham high. Unfortunately the umpires decided to stop for dinner, so the game started only an hour earlier than was hoped for.
