Hart played the Pleasure Ridge Park Panthers today and Derek Sedam pitched a great game as he took a 1 hitter into the 6th inning.

Hart was leading 1-0 on a beautiful day at Canyon of Anaheim field. Unfortunately the game immediately started to unravel when a pop fly by Troy Frazier into the sun behind second and right field fell untouched for a double. A sharp single by Derek Mattingly scored Frazier. When Josh Vincent walked, Derek Sedam was relieved by Nick Streit. A sacrifice moved the runners up. With the infield in, a very slow "topped ball" scored Mattingly. An error then prolonged the inning and a sharp single to left then scored Vincent, and the 1-0 Hart lead had evaporated into a 3-1 lead for the Panthers.

The Panthers picked up an insurance run in the top of the 7th off Streit. With 1 out Frazier tripled and scored on a sacrifice fly by Mattingly to make it 4-1 for the Panthers.

As good as Derek Sedam pitched, Panthers pitcher Justin Crawford was even better.

In the 1st Crawford gave up a line single by Shane Carlson. With 1 out Ryan Gagnon doubled, Carlson scoring all the way from first.

In the bottom of the 6th with Hart losing, with 1 out Pettersen singled and Gagnon doubled in the left center field gap. Matt Valaika nursing a pulled hamstring muscle came in to pinch hit for Pat Sarkissian. He hit a "chopper" to 3rd and had to give the "hammy" a strenuous work out as he unsuccessfully tried to beat it out. It is still unsure if he will start Friday vs Canyon (at Hart). Tyler Fick flied out to end the 6th.

That was basically it.

Hart had 7 hits: Gagnon had 2 doubles 1 RBI, Ryan Pettersen had a double and single.

Tyler Fick, Carlson and Donny Williams had singles.

Crawford had 7 strikeouts and only walked 1 batter.

As said, Derek Sedam pitched a great game for Hart through the first 5 innings. He got a lot of fly balls, a couple hit deep to center but Brian Charnock was able to run the fly balls down in the spacious Anaheim Canyon Comanche Field. Derek gave up 3 hits, walked 3 and hit 2 batters.

Pleasure Ridge is 2-1 in the Canyon\Anaheim Pool in the Caliber Motors tournament along with Canyon Springs. Pleasure Ridge beat Canyon Springs so the Panthers will play in the 1st place game tomorrow (Wednesday) against Temecula Valley (who won the El Modena Pool) at 3:pm at Anaheim Canyon.

Hart will play El Modena at El Mo tomorrow at 3:pm.

Hart's record is now 9-3-1.

Pleasure Ridge is only 5-1 as they start later in the year back in Kentucky due to the cold, but windup playing many more games than Southern Section teams. Last year they were 29-7. In 2003 they were 31-6. They have played up to 44 games in 1 year.

In Kentucky ALL teams are eligible to play in the State Tournament which is played until a State Champion is decided, and they have been State runner up 4 times.

They are the 3rd largest school (Enrollment wise) in Kentucky, located in Louisville. They travel far and wide each year at Easter time to be in tournaments against first class competition. They have played in the "National Classic" in Orange county a few times.
