HIGHLIGHTS of Game# 06-27: Hart 2, El Toro 1 (CIF-SS D-1 Playoff Game # 1)

Hart wins 1st Round Playoff Game 2-1 over El Toro

Hart will play Riverside Poly on Tuesday. Home team to be determined by a coin flip.

Great game, great day. Lots of people came to see Hart win a very close game today against El Toro.

Hart pushed across the lead (and eventual winning) run in the 6th when Steve Burton flared a single to right scoring Jason Rehhaut who had singled with 1 out, stole 2nd, took 3rd on a ground out.

Mike Montgomery of Hart and Ryan Doyle of El Toro hooked up in an old fashioned pitchers duel. In the end Hart held on as El Toro had men on 1st and 3rd and the best hitter for El Toro was on deck. Fortunately for Hart the # 9 hitter hit a lazy fly to right and Hart had the first round victory.

Hart will now hope to win a coin flip against Riverside Poly to see who gets the Home game. Riverside Poly is the # 4 seed and won its game at home easily against Long Beach Jordan 10-1.

Mike Montgomery has been out for 2 weeks with a back problem and looked just a bit rusty although he had a 1-2-3 first, and would have a 1-2-3 second, except 1 man reached first on a strikeout.

Hart pushed across a run without a hit in the first when Matt Valaika walked. Danny Susdorf sacrificed and the 3rd baseman threw the ball away so Valaika took 3rd, and Susdorf was safe at first. After a come backer for 1 out, Jenzen Torres hit a slow grounder to 2nd to score Valaika.

Hart had a big SCARE in the bottom of the 2nd. With 1 out Bryan Lucas tried to bunt for a hit, but the ball was fouled off his bat directly into his forehead. Lucas was down and although he eventually got up under his own power he could not continue with his at bat.

Garrett Bailey, just up from the JV team was called on to finish Lucas's at bat and struck out in his Varsity debut.

Defensively with Lucas out, Pat Sarkissian moved from 1st to Catcher, and Mike Cieszko took over 1st base duties.

The objective in the game was to keep the leadoff batter Kyle Ohlwiler off the bases. The speedy Ohlwiler had 11 stolen bases. Hart managed to keep him almost off the bases, except when he trotted around them after hitting a low line dive over the left field wall in the 3rd to tie the game up at 1-1.

The most interesting inning for both teams was the 4th.

In the 4th for El Toro Drew Hillman opened with a hard line drive single to center and was sacrificed to 2nd, and took 3rd on a single between short and 3rd by Michael Czapski. Then with 1 out El Toro tried the pickle play.

Pat Sarkissian threw the ball straight back to the pitcher Montgomery. The runner on 3rd didn't budge. The runner going to 2nd stopped mid way trying to draw the pickle play. Since the runner on 3rd was holding closely, Hart went after the runner again between 1st and 2nd again. Montgomery threw to 1st baseman Mike Cieszko who was all the while keeping an eye on the runner at 3rd. At the last second he threw to Matt Valaika who tagged the runner between 1st and 2nd then quickly threw home to get the timid runner who finally tried to make a break for the plate and he was tagged out by Pat Sarkissian for a very unusual double play on a double steal attempt and the result was 2 runners caught stealing on 1 play and Hart was out of a very messy inning with out giving up a run.

Now Hart was feeling good. In the bottom of the 4th, Pat Sarkissian lined a single to center. That was the first hit off El Toro pitcher Ryan Doyle. On a perfect Hit and Run play, Jenzen Torres hit behind the runner and wound up with a double. After a strikeout, Jake Supowit was walked intentionally. So Hart had the bases loaded and 1 out. A strike out and a pop up ended what could have been a big inning for Hart, and now El Toro was feeling good in a 1-1 game. But Mike Montgomery clutched up and got 3 up 3 down innings in the 5th and 6th and Hart took the lead in the bottom of the 6th on Rehhaut and Steve Burton's heroics.

It only remained for Montgomery to complete the victory in the top of the 7th, but as it always seems to go, that is never easy.

The lead off batter (the # 5 hitter), Hillman hit a wicked shot to right, but Rehhaut made a great catch. # 6 hitter Austin Fierro lined a hard single to left. The #7 hitter, Michael Czapski hit a ball sharply to 3rd snagged by Jenzen Torres who tried to start a double play but his throw was dropped by the 2nd baseman and El Toro had 2 runners on and only 1 out. Another grounder to 3rd did result in a force out at 2nd with runners now on at 1st and 3rd. Up came the # 9 hitter, Nick Porrizzo with the speedy Ohlwiler on deck. The count went to 3-1 but Porrizzo then fouled off 2 pitches, before hitting a lazy fly to Rehhaut in right to end the game.

Both pitchers gave up only 4 hits. Montgomery improved his record to 7-2. Doyle slipped to 6-3.

Hart played in the quarter finals last year against Riverside Poly

Last year Hart won the Home game coin flip against Riverside Poly, then jumped on RP for 3 runs in the 1st on Tyler Ficks 3 run homer.

RP brought in a sophomore pitcher named Hector Rabago who shut Hart down the rest of the way, and eventually RP tied Hart in the 7th.

Hart had a golden chance to win in the bottom of the 7th but eventually lost it in the 8th.

Dave Caldwell did his radio Broadcast on KHTS (1220 AM) from the announcers booth.

Craig Leener covered the game for the Signal. Read his story in tomorrows Signal.

Billy Susdorf (Hart-2001) now playing for the San Diego Pagres for Lake Elsinore was at the game.
