Note I have cleaned up the Page and it looks similar to the other 21 years that precede 2008.

The game Box, Year To Date Stats, All Games Line Scores, Runs each Inning totals Etc. are all updated. Hope you will check it out.

Note at the top of each Box Score in the .PDF is a link to the previous and next game.

For the 2nd straight game Hart played a team named the Chargers.

Turns out it was well worth the long drive to Dos Pueblos, but for the first 5 innings it was very frustrating, as Hart kept getting runners in scoring position only to see them fail each time to score.

Meantime Casey McCarthy was pitching a great game, but when Dos Pueblos got the leadoff batters on in 2 occasions, they managed to work their way around the bases to score.

In the 2nd he struck out the side, but in the 3rd a leadoff line single to center by Trevor Johnson might not have been too bad but Casey committed the ultimate sin by Balking him to 2nd. He was sacrificed to 3rd and coasted in on a hard line single by 1st place batter Chito Elias.

In the 4th, James McCann, Arkansas bound (On a Scholarship) singled to left. He was singled to 3rd by Tyler Patton and scored on a sacrifice fly by Nathan Hart (Interesting name).

In the 5th he gave up a leadoff single again to Trevor Johnson, but Steven Reveles trying to sacrifice popped up the bunt foul to the left side. Hart catcher, Bryan Lucas crashed into the fence making the catch and then spun around and caught the napping Johnson at first for a double play.

But Hart was not scoring despite getting runners on in every inning except the first.

In the 1st Jenzen Torres fresh off hitting a Homer in game 1 and just missing hitting a 396 foot 2nd homer of the game, fouled off a pitch on his foot and hobbled around for a while. He finally got back in and hit a screaming liner hard but right at the left fielder.

In the 2nd Devin Rodriguez reached first when the Dos Pueblos pitcher Michael Tirador taking a toss from the 1st baseman failed to step on the bag and was sacrificed to 2nd by Bryan Lucas but they failed to advance him.

In the 3rd Trevor Brown was hit by pitch and a hard line single down the left field line by Danny Susdorf moved Brown to 3rd. But a pop up and easy come backer to the mound left 2 out. Torres walked loading the bases but another hard smash back to the mound was turned into the final out in the 3rd by Tirador.

In the 4th Bryan Lucas blooped a single to center and immediately stole 2nd but 3 straight outs failed to advance him.

In the 5th Danny Susdorf led off with a perfect bunt and toward 3rd but the umpire called him out saying he was out of the batters box when he hit the ball.

Spencer Moniz was hit by pitch. Tyler Eyrich scalded the ball but it was hit directly to the right fielder.

Torres was safe on a ground ball error by the 3rd baseman, but Tirador got out of the inning when he got his only strikeout of the game.

In the 6th with 1 out Mike Montgomery hit a screamer heading to center, but the pitcher Tirador snagged it.

At that point it was getting most frustrating because although Hart was hitting the ball the Pitcher Tirador was defending his position and getting lots of putouts and assists and Hart was running out of outs.

But, then a break came. With 2 out in the 6th Trevor Matern hit one back to the mound and this time pitcher Tirador was only able to deflect it slowly towards short and the ss couldn't make a play. Trevor Brown lined a single to center putting Matern at 2nd.

Danny Susdorf having a hot start in 2008 singled, Matern scoring from second and that knocked out Tirador.

Steve MacFarlane came in to get the last out in the top of the 6th.

In the Dos Pueblos 6th what would have been a little looper over the mound for a hit was turned into an out when Spencer Moniz made another spectacular dive and caught that ball. Even the Dos Pueblos fans were marveling at how great that play was.

Then Chris Joyce (UCSB bound on a scholarship), followed up with a ground rule double that landed just fair and bounced over the right field wall.

With Hart behind 2-1, that was it for Casey McCarthy. He had pitched well enough to win but up to that point didn't have the offensive support so every pitch was critical.

In came Trevor Bauer who had pitched so well for Hart when he was brought up from the JV late in 2007.

With the man on 2nd he seemed to have some "hellacious stuff" and uncorked a wild pitch putting Joyce on 3rd with 1 out.

But his "stuff" was working as he struck out James McCann and Tyler Patton who both had to be thrown out at 1st as they swung at balls in the dirt and it got away but Bryan Lucas was on it like a cat. Hart was out of the inning but behind 2-1.

In the top of the 7th the Dos Pueblos Chargers brought their superstar James McCann to the mound to try and finish off Hart. The previous day he (I think) had shut out Camarillo 3-0. (Camarillo beat Hart handily in last Saturdays Scrimmage game and also beat Thousand Oaks, so Hart was in dire straights.

Tyler Eyrich opened up the 7th with an easy grounder to 3rd but the 3rd baseman's throw pulled the 1st baseman off the bag and he was safe.

Jason Rehhaut pinch ran for Eyrich. Jenzen Torres was promptly hit by pitch putting 2 men on with no outs.

Devin Rodriguez sacrificed both runners up, but an easy grounder to 1st had the 2 runners still in scoring position but 2 were out.

Mike Montgomery saved the day when he slammed one to deep left center for a double scoring Rehhaut and Torres, turning a 2-1 deficit into a 3-2 Hart lead. WOW!!!

Trevor Matern then got the first Homer of his Varsity Career scoring Montgomery and Hart had put the "Icing on the cake with a 5-2 lead.

With Trevor Brown up next, pitcher James McCann then apparently threw a pitch high and behind Brown and the plate umpire immediately ran towards the mound and then pointed toward the Dos Pueblos bench yelling that "they have been warned"!!!!.

Brown almost turned the tables on them as he slammed the next pitch deep to center but it was hauled in for the final out.

Because of the error, all 4 runs were un-earned. Hart scored 5 un-earned runs the previous day against Agoura in the 1st, so were feasting on other teams errors.

So Trevor Bauer took the mound on the bottom of the 7th only needing 3 outs to secure the victory.

He struck out Nathan Hart easily. Then faced 3 straight pinch hitters, the first of which walked but a fielder's choice and a strikeout ended it at 5-2 in Hart's favor.

Dos Pueblos didn't have many players out there before the game. Turns out they finally showed up during the game as they had been taking their SAT Tests.
